Big Get-Together Meeting of the Hotel Men, Chamber Commerce and Prominent Winter Guests to Be Held Wednesday Night

In order that the best interests of Daytona and the Halifax Country may be considered, and the booster spirit instilled, a dinner will be given at the Ridgewood hotel Wednesday evening followed by a meeting, at which prominent winter guests and residents of this community will be the guests of the Daytona Hotel Men's association, the Chamber of Commerce and merchants of this community.

Plans for the big meeting, at which it is hoped every merchant, hotel man, and everyone with the best interests of the community at heart will be present, were made at a joint meeting Saturday morning of the officers and directors of the Daytona Chamber of Commerce and the Daytona Hotel Men's association.

Invitations will be extended to prominent winter residents to be present Wednesday evening, as guests of the leading merchants, hotel men and others, in order that a proper prospectus may be gained on the desires and wishes of these residents and that plans may be made, which, when fulfilled, will place the Halifax Country on the plane to which it has aspired for many years, but in which it has failed in realization.

The Wednesday evening meeting is an outgrowth of the rousing meeting of last week, when the hotel men and Chamber of Commerce held a session at Cottaneo's. It was found at that time that there was little divergence between the present spirit of community progress and the actual accomplishment of great good for this community.

It is anticipated that the Wednesday evening meeting, which will commence with a dinner at 7:30, will prove to be the greatest booster meeting ever held in Daytona. There is a spirit of cooperation between the various communities forming the Halifax Country at this time which bespeaks great progress in many ways.

It is for the purpose of fostering this spirit of cooperation, and uniting all forces working for good in this great Halifax Country that the get-together meeting will be held.

Business men are especially urged to be present. Invitations will be extended tomorrow to prominent winter guests, many of whom have been out of touch with the real progressive spirit of the community, perhaps because of lack of unity among the local forces.

It is hoped to have several hundred of the most progressive citizens of the Halifax Country present at the Ridgewood at that time. Committees of the hotel men and of the Chamber of Commerce will meet at 11 o'clock tomorrow morning to complete plans for the dinner and meeting.

More Indications That Nothing Is Gained by Waiting.

All factors indicate that building can be carried on to advantage this year far more so than for several years past. Building materials will be available and the efficiency of labor is improving and will continue as thousands of men formerly pursuing trades but who engaged in war work in factories, shipyards, etc., will return to the building industry.

It is the general feeling among men in all lines of business that the readjustment period is about over and that business all over the country will take on a healthy condition within the very near future.

Everyone is aware that there is to be a great demand for lumber, building materials and labor within a short time as the housing problem in every community cannot be solved in any other way than by building more houses.

It is quite evident that the best service one can render to himself and to his country at this time is to buy at today's prices covering his reasonable requirements. Early purchasing and anticipation now of future needs on the part of many will head off the period of stampeded buying which is bound to come with consequently soaring prices. The present attitude of possible and prospective buyers invites the return of a most unhealthy condition with congested demand and exhausted supply.

Leading business men and residents of the TRIPLE CITIES in this issue of the NEWS advise and cordially urge you to BUY or BUILD NOW. If you can improve or add to the comfort of your present home, NOW is the best time to do it, and the business men whose announcements appear herein are at your service.

GERMAN WAR INDEMNITY IS GREATEST SUM EVER IMPOSED ON A DEFEATED NATION IN HISTORY

COUNTRY MUST DISARM EVEN TO HOME GUARDS BY THE END OF JUNE

PARIS, Jan. 29.—The Allied Supreme Council tonight decided to send a note to Germany warning her that unless she executes the disarmament program as laid down by the Allies she can be excluded from the League of Nations. The Supreme Council adjourned tonight, the premiers pronouncing the meeting a complete success.

It was agreed that the Allies forego a part of the reparations due from Austria. A conference of representatives of Austria's neighbor nations will be called to consider measures for assisting that nation. An Allied Commission will be appointed to investigate Austrian finances.

Most Important Since Versailles Treaty

Among the last resolutions adopted by the conference was one setting forth the opinion that a "close union in peace is as necessary as in war and is the surest guarantee of the peace of the world and the execution of treaties."

The indemnity decision, the most important from an international standpoint since the Treaty of Versailles was signed, provides that Germany shall pay her reparations upon a sliding scale, amounts increasing as the German nation grows stronger. Germany gets two years to pay the first installment of two billion gold marks. During the following three years she must pay three billion gold marks, the sums rising until the maximum payment of six billion gold marks is reached. If Germany recovers financially and commercially so she can make payments in advance she will be granted a discount.

Detailed plans are being put into printed form and will be communicated to Berlin next week so German experts will have an opportunity to study them before the economic conferences at Brussels are resumed February 7. As near as possible the Allied statesmen followed the general outlines of the indemnity clauses of the peace treaty and the Spa protocol. French statesmen are rejoicing, feeling that they won a big victory. Lloyd George is cheerful. He will leave for London Sunday.

Biggest Ever Imposed

The most staggering sum of a war indemnity ever imposed upon a defeated nation will be exacted from Germany. She must pay the Allies two hundred and twenty-five billion gold marks during the next forty-two years, equivalent to between fifty-six and fifty-seven billion dollars of United States money. In addition Germany must pay an export tax of 12 per cent upon all her outgoing trade during the same period.

Whether Germany will assent to pay this stupendous sum was not certain tonight. Representatives of the Berlin government will have an opportunity to discuss the indemnity plan February 28 with the Allies at a conference to be held in London.

In addition to fixing the great indemnity sum, allied premiers decided to disarm Germany completely. All of the so-called home guards of Germany, especially the Bavarian Einwohnerwehr, will have to disband by the end of June. Stern penalties are threatened in the event Germany fails to carry out these two obligations on indemnity and disarmament, one being the barring of Germany from the League of Nations. If disarmament terms are flouted the Allies reserve the right to seize German customs stations on the Rhine.

In any event it is possible the Allies will continue military occupation of Rhineland for fifteen years from the date Germany makes the first reparation payment. When the Supreme Council broke up tonight particular pains were taken to emphasize the fact that Great Britain and France are in accord on all German questions and to show that differences of opinion which had threatened to cause a serious split had been dissipated.

STILLS AND LIQUOR LOCATED BY OFFICER THROUGHOUT COUNTY

NEW SMYRNA, Jan. 29.—Prohibition Officer W. L. Cooper put in another busy day last Saturday, when he unexpectedly visited a meat market in Daytona, where it had been reported to him that liquor might be found, and discovered a quantity of moonshine. He is said to have visited the place too early for the usual Saturday business.

From Daytona he went to Port Orange and is said to have found at the home of A. L. Jackson a quantity of bonded liquor in the house and secreted in the yard, together with 13 quarts of moonshine all bottled, corked and ready for delivery. The liquor was confiscated, enough retained for evidence and the balance destroyed.

The next stop of the federal officer, who was accompanied on this trip by Capt. H. Powell and L. E. Perry, was at Glencoe, where he had been tipped off where to look for a still.

The man he was looking for as the operator of the joy water manufactory was a negro by the name of Bud Glover and as he entered Glencoe stopped several negroes on the road to inquire where Bud could be found. He was informed that Bud was one of the party, so he was taken into the automobile and ordered to direct the officer to his home. Bud was carrying his coat over his arm and it was discovered that he had a quart bottle of moonshine tied up in each sleeve of the coat. When they arrived at Bud's home it was found the other colored men had cut through the woods and destroyed all evidence of the still before the officer arrived. Bud was taken to DeLand and turned over to the county officers.

One day last week Mr. Cooper made a visit to Oak Hill and vicinity and as a result of investigations in that section is said to have found several gallons of moonshine in Arthur Mendell's house. At Archie Smith's place he is said to have found several gallons of moonshine and a 50-gallon copper still just outside his fence. At the home of W. M. Hutchinson he is said to have found several gallons of finished 'shine and when the officer and his party visited the place they are said to have found Mr. Hutchinson and a man by the name of Godfrey operating a still back of the house.

(Newspaper Enterprise Association.)

NEW YORK, Jan. 29.—A 30-year-old project, to build a bridge over the Hudson river, is being revived.

The new bridge will have 14 car tracks and 14 vehicle lines. It will have an hourly traffic capacity of 1,300,000 passengers, 24,000 vehicles and 58,000 tons of freight.

He sent the recommendation to the White House late today. No intimation was forthcoming from the White House whether the President will concur.

Presidential clemency for Debs and his release in the near future was predicted tonight, although it is not believed here that Debs will be given a complete pardon. Commutation of his sentence is expected.

Palmer Confers

Attorney General Palmer conferred with Assistant Attorney General Stewart this evening relative to pleas for pardon for Eugene Debs, Socialist leader, in the penitentiary at Atlanta, for violation of the espionage act. Good, Republican, of Iowa, in addressing the Southern Tariff Congress, at the closing session this afternoon.

Mr. Good declared that the industry and commerce of the nation had been taxed to the breaking point. After adopting resolutions recommended by the committee approving a protective tariff and pledging the delegates to the convention to work for the enactment of a tariff to "protect each and every American industry against destruction by foreign competition," the Congress adjourned. A resolution asking Congress to bar all foreign-made goods that can be manufactured in this country was killed in the committee.

From unofficial sources it is learned the railway chiefs are considering an appeal to the public to support railroads in the proposed plan to reduce wages of employes is one of the proposals under discussion. The railway brotherhoods will resist all efforts to cut wages and the railroads contend the support of the public will be necessary to "bring the railroads back to normalcy." One proposition is abrogation of the present national shop agreements.

"ADMIRAL" MITCHELL'S STAND ON BATTLESHIPS NOT TAKEN SERIOUSLY

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—Recent experiments by the United States navy have demonstrated that it is altogether improbable that the modern battleship will be destroyed or put out of commission by aerial fighting craft, it was officially stated tonight.

Statements made by Brigadier General Mitchell, chief of the army air service, before the House appropriations committee to the effect that aerial fighting had progressed so rapidly that the modern battleships were doomed, created some furor and indignity in naval circles today. Secretary of the Navy Daniels indicated that the navy department is not taking "Admiral" Mitchell seriously.

WILLIAM J. BRYAN IN STATEMENT TAKES A DIG AT EX-GOV. COX

MIAMI, Jan. 29.—William Jennings Bryan tonight announced his opinion of the assumption of leadership of the Democratic party by former Governor James Cox, in connection with conferences recently held in Washington of the Democratic leaders. Marion Harris Tells What "Blue Songs" Really Are

"Here she very first time I read in the news," says Marion Harris, the dainty and talented little singer who is being featured at the Strand theatre Saturday evening, which appears at the Auditorium on Wednesday evening for a recital performance. "If you have enjoyed what is called 'blue' songs when you have heard me sing them, you will enjoy some more tonight, but remember all the colored ones and those who lived in the South all their lives, especially in the country and along the water fronts are of that opinion. The best example I know of these popular songs was written by Jelly Roll Morton, and is called 'Jelly Roll Blues.' It is a number that is familiar to most music lovers in this country. Another typical example was brought out in the music used in the drama 'Harlequin.'

"Being a daughter of the South and always having negro servants about the house, as a child I was always interested in the folk tunes that the negro loved to sing and after all very fond a minor strain. He always confined to be longing for something just without his reach and when those days are to say his longing for his native country. Others claim that slavery has much to do with it. Whether this be the true solution or not, I do know that all negro music has a heavenly strain entirely different from that of any other race. It is said that negro melodies are the only folk-lore in this country. This I believe.

"Some 35 years ago two colored boys, Paco and Handy, started in the publication of songs based upon negro melodies. They published a book entitled 'St. Louis Blues.' It proved a big hit, and there was song in all parts of the country. It was the true musical spirit of the negro and when I started to sing it I found it brought back many memories of the days when I was a child. Another song to be by me this Carnival Monday. In style this number has been ballad form. It was not ragtime or jazz, and it may be considered it a classic in character.

"To sing such numbers in true negro dialect and rhythm one must understand the colored people, their ways and habits. This I have tried to do and then imbue them in the true and proper style. But when it comes right down to give a real explanation of what is meant by the 'blues' style of song, I would be a true negro ballad number, such as mine or less."

"We wish you the best of everything for 1921.—News's. 1t-30-1f

An impression of the scenic environment for visit.

It was not pleasant recently to meet a courier, one of a party of four, who were leaving Daytona because of the discouragement that had in several satisfactory rooms. It was not the price for the rooms, not the price for meals at hotels and restaurants—of the agent there all spoke most favorably—but to be compelled to walk blocks and blocks to look after meals, and those to be taken in an atmosphere unwelcome, dirty, poor food, antiquated bath tubs, in short, not to be considered in a city that is expended to appear it arise and ever again was anxious that they could stand.

The party of tourists were out of the ordinary—quick kind, not the hard, hard rich, but the kind, very desirable kind, all of whom appeared well born and well bred, and gladly have taken them in and long proud to have them. I remember the fact that there are others in the city who are not so appeal to this class. The most good in one of the most important of the city's assets, and I remember a case in point. And I would suggest that this would be a woman, one who would appreciate the respect of both parties and fixed notions, that Daytona should be so accessible every week advertised for and, to see that it was accessible, that the conditions are as represented, and if the rules the hotel is not established to adhere with the comfort and clean rules that are expected with other cities for rest that is so rich and that it would be better and for the city and for the hotel that the tourists are not annoyed, to many a later visit.

The most accessible thing that I see accessible. Well, perhaps I can, the story what the city and with such facilities and so on of the visitors to visit especially made, but now this appeared one for it and for that I was right, and I merely feel that I am one right of the most essential to early days we had the rules enforced in Charleston, S. C., but there he lives, and are to one, the tourists began to see the advantages of having their rooms nice, neat and clean, with good substantial bath tubs and fixtures. Daytona has a beautiful reputation of being the best little town in any of America, and has many facilities for entertaining visitors that are not to be found in the country. Further, there are all parts of the West and East coast, they are good enough

Marion Harris Tells What "Blue Songs" Really Are

"Since the very first time I went on the stage," says Marion Harris, the dainty and talented little singer who is being featured with the Columbia Saxophone Sextette, which appears at the Auditorium on Monday evening for a novel performance, "I've been singing what is called today 'Blues Numbers.' Often I've been asked: 'What are Blues Songs?' Of course, I have my own version of what they are and my own ideas as to how they should be sung. Perhaps some of our composers who have studied what is called 'folk songs' may not agree with me when I say that the 'Blues' numbers are nothing more than negro ballads, but students of the colored race and those who lived in the South all their lives, especially in the country and along the water fronts are of that opinion. The best example I know of these peculiar strains were brought out in John Powell's 'Rhapsodie Negre' for piano and orchestra, which is familiar to most music goers in this country. Another fitting example was brought out in the music used in the drama 'Martinique.'

"Being a daughter of the South and always having negro servants about the house, as a child I was always interested in the folk tunes. Be the negro happy or sad, his music always had a minor strain. He always seemed to be longing for something just without his reach. Some students say it was his longing for his native country. Others claim that slavery has much to do with it. Whether this be the true solution or not, I do know that all negro music has a harmonic strain entirely different from that of any other race. It is said that negro melodies are the only folk-lore in this country. This I believe.

"Some 15 years ago two colored boys, Pace and Handy, started in the publication of songs based upon negro melodies. They produced a number entitled 'St. Louis Blues.' It proved a big hit, and soon was sung in all parts of the country. To me it was the true musical spirit of the negro, and when I started to sing it I found it brought back many familiar strains sung to me by my Ole Colored Mammy. In style this number had true ballad form. It was not ragtime or jazz, and I have always considered it a classic in character.

"To sing such numbers in true negro style dialect and rhythm one must understand the colored people, their ways and habits. This I have tried to do and thus imitate them in the true and proper style. But when it comes right down to give a real explanation of what is meant by the 'Blues' style of song, I believe it to be a true negro ballad number, nothing more or less."

Appetizing meals are attracting many people to the Toronita hotel at Wilbur. The menus are varied daily and all that the market affords is prepared in a most appetizing manner.

Wilbur is the nearest resort on the peninsula to the lighthouse, and provides boating, surf bathing, fishing, dancing and tennis. The Toronita hotel is right at the Atlantic ocean and is modern in every respect.

"UNCLE GEORGE'S" SUNDAY MORNING SERMON

What our city needs and what is due our tourists.

It was my pleasure recently to meet a tourist, one of a party of four, who were leaving Daytona because of the discouragement they had in getting satisfactory rooms. It was not the price for the rooms, nor the price for meals at hotels and restaurants—of the latter they all spoke most favorably—but to be compelled to walk blocks and blocks to look after rooms and then to find them in an unsanitary condition, dirty, poor beds, antiquated bath tubs. In short, not fit to be occupied, and then to be compelled to repeat it over and over again was more than they could stand.

This group of tourists were not of the get-rich-quick kind, not the blow-hard rich, but the most, very desirable kind, all of whom anyone who have good homes would gladly have taken them in and been proud to have them. I recognize the fact that there are others who complain but they do not apply to this class. The room question is one of the most important of all—that is why I recommend a city inspector. And I would suggest that this would be a woman, one who would command the respect of both tourists and house owners. Her duties should be to personally inspect every room advertised for rent, to see that it was sanitary, that the furnishings are as represented, and if she thinks the price is too exhorbitant to advise with the owner, and show them that as compared with other rooms for rent that is too high and that it would be better and for the good of the city and much more satisfactory all around, to make a lower basis.

You may possibly think that I am meddling. Well, perhaps I am; for that's what the dirt and soft road builders used to say of me when I first began to talk concrete roads; but now they applaud me for it and say that I was right, and I surely feel that I am also right on the room question. In early days we had the same experience in Charlevoix, Mich., but little by little, and one by one, the householders began to see the advantage of having their rooms nice, sweet and clean, with good up-to-date bath tubs, so that now Charlevoix has a national reputation of being the best little tourist city in America, and has more bath tubs in it than any other city of its size in the country. Tourists come there from all parts of the West and Southwest; they pay good prices for such rooms and many of them rent and re-rent the same rooms year after year and eventually purchase them.

One of the best things for the united Triple Cities that I know of, aside from more up-to-date fire-proof hotels, fire-proof apartment houses such as they have in California, is a farming community. I wish to call the attention of capitalists to it, for it takes a good deal of time and money to clean up the land here. Many northern farmers express themselves in this way. You see, I haven't the money to buy land and build a house and wait a couple of years for a crop; it would also be very lonesome for me to go out there alone. But if some rich man would clear up the land and build a dozen houses or so, enough to make a little home-like colony, a lot of us would be glad to buy. We could pay from forty to sixty per cent down and mortgage the balance, which we could pay off in equal yearly payments of three to five years. This would make a safe investment for them and easy for us.

You rich fellows who wish to make investments, just think a little about this, and while your thinker is at work, just jot down this saying of Uncle George's "that property values in this vicinity, between Ormond and including New Smyrna, will increase steadily and in fact, they are doing so now." Don't bite off any more than you can "chaw," but chaw a big cud. I am getting my teeth sharpened so as to be able to chaw the rag on this line, including good concrete roads, fireproofing the hotels and Americanizing the aliens.

A man said to me the other day, "You old fool, you ought to stop raring and tearing around and a-cussing and a-blowing at your time of life. It is not dignified, and you should be making your peace with God." I replied, "How old are you?" His answer was, "Forty-one." "Well," I said, "don't worry about me; you better begin yourself, for there are a great many more men who die at forty-one than at 81." He said, "Horse on me."

Yours truly,
UNCLE GEORGE VAN PELT.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Pinney entertained at dinner last evening, James Ross and Richard Shannon, guests at the Despland.

Twenty-eight of Ortona's colony enjoyed a beef-steak dinner at Sunset Park last Sunday.

Mrs. Arthur Coffin, of Windsor Locke, Conn., has taken possession of her new home on Brooklime avenue. Her son, Dexter, is to be with her until the middle of February.

Some Ridgewood patrons, including Mr. and Mrs. Henry E. Bolles, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Hamlin and Mrs. Robert Eaton, were recent dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Lerche at their winter home, The Pergola.

Schulte Park is Busy Spot With Much Building

Developments in Schulte Park, the highly restricted peninsula residential subdivision, are progressing at a very rapid rate.

The five feet wide and extremely thick cement walks which are being laid with unusual care and composed of the finest materials obtainable now extend from Peninsula drive to Atlantic avenue.

One house on Peninsula drive has practically all the carpenter work done, the electrical wiring installed, gas outlets put in and is in readiness for the plasterers and finishers who will begin work this coming week.

The foundations and superstructure of a larger and even more beautiful house on the corner of Palmetto and Park avenues have already been built and the next few days will see the roofers and electricians at work on it. This house will be of a semi-Spanish type, containing 11 well planned rooms and equipped with every modern convenience.

Foundation and beginning materials have been placed for Mr. Schulte's front home, which will be of unique design and a real show place.

As these are but a few of the many beautiful homes to be started in Schulte Park in the near future, everything points to a substantial increase in the number of available homes in this Garden of the Americas.

H. F. Cliff Home Robbed Saturday, Watch and Jewels

The new home of H. F. Cliff, immediately east of the Daytona Beach approach to the concrete bridge, was entered and robbed Saturday evening, some time between 6:30 and 8:30, Mr. and Mrs. Cliff finding, upon their return to their home at the latter hour, after an absence of several hours, that the back door had been forced, the burglars gaining an entrance by this route.

The house was given a thorough overhauling by the robbers, drawers were turned out and evidently a search made for money and jewelry.

A ladies' wrist watch and three pieces of jewelry of small value were taken, nothing else being found gone after a check of the belongings was made.

Everything will be ready for the opening night of the Elks' Fair in the Armory, February 7.

A parade with a band will precede the opening. And the first night will be "opening night" and will inaugurate a two weeks' benefit for the Elks' charity fund.

The Elks' colors will be the color scheme for the fair, which will continue until February 19, inclusive. Col. Noble F. ORANGE CLUB NOTES

[illegible] and roses made an [illegible] decoration for the usual [illegible] on Wednesday, which was in [illegible] of Mrs. Harris, who announced [illegible] program as well as having an [illegible] part in it.

[illegible] Filkins played an instrumental selection after which the paper [illegible] written by Mrs. Cummings was read by Mrs. Lyon. The [illegible] of the home as a center [illegible] which to work for cleanliness, health, and war on disease and [illegible] for communities was emphasized. She praised the unusually [illegible] water supply of this section.

[illegible] solo, "Until," as sung by Dr. [illegible] of Hollywood, Cal., who was accompanied by his sister, was a [illegible] treat to all.

Miss Gowey's piano solo was a prelude to Mrs. Harris' talk on the "Resources and Home Life of Cuba." She spoke with authority because of the fact that she has spent many years of her life on that tropical isle. [illegible] wizardry of her descriptions brought the conditions home to us.

She says that since the revolution [illegible] resources have been much increased. Before the war tobacco was the principle crop, but now sugar ranks first and a sugar plantation there will comprise from five hundred to ten thousand acres and will require from three thousand to five thousand workers, making a little community of its own on each estate.

She exhibited a machete, an implement equally useful for carving bread or meat in the home or for cutting a path through the tropical jungle.

The people though clannish, are hospitable and a cup of coffee is always offered the visitor.

The day begins with coffee and rolls. At eleven a more substantial meal, with meats and vegetables, is served. From one to four the siesta is enjoyed, and at nine at night a very hearty dinner. Fruit is not regarded with favor as food.

A little roast pig is the popular dish for the Yuletide feast, and the entire Christmas week is a round of balls and feasts and carnivals and revelry reigns around the plaza.

The people are not used to governing themselves so that progress is necessarily slow. The impetus given by the Americans is very noticeable in the city of Havana which is an unusually clean city.

We acquired a new viewpoint from the first hand information given by Mrs. Harris and to her and to her efficient corps of helpers due credit is given for a successful meeting.

Mrs. Cory acted as hostess and among others who assisted were Mrs. [illegible] M. Smith, Mrs. Warner, Mrs. [illegible], Miss Marion Bemis and Miss [illegible].

Solomon Predicted It

In the book of Tobit, chapter 5, verse 16, there is this statement—"and the young man's dog went along with them." In one of the published accounts of the Tuesday election in New York city there is this statement—"the women went to the voting booths and, in many instances, their dogs went along with them." As King Solomon remarked, there isn't any thing new under the sun.—Baltimore American.

Hames--Father and Daughter--Arrive to Identify Allen

Ably protected by Sheriff Lee Morris to prevent a possible carrying out of the threat to kill them if they again set foot on the soil of Volusia county, Arthur Hames and his daughter, Lena, arrived in DeLand last night to appear at the preliminary hearing of George W. Allen of Daytona, to be held before Judge J. Lee McCrory tomorrow. Allen was arrested by deputy sheriffs nearly a week ago as the "big man" who is alleged to have been implicated in the killing of Grady Hames at Daytona Beach on the night of December 26, when a band of unknown men kidnaped the elder Hames and took him to a point west of Daytona and treated him to a number of lashes and cautioned him to leave the county, according to statements later made by Hames. In kidnaping Hames, his son, Arthur, who is said to have gone to the assistance of the father, was shot, from the effects of which he died the following morning. Allen is said to have been pointed out to Deputy Sheriff Milton by Lena Hames as one of the assailants, and Allen was arrested on the charge of aiding and abetting in the killing. Allen is said to have made the statement that he can prove a complete alibi, as he was playing cards with friends on the night the killing occurred.

SUCH IS LIFE

If a wild joker fits in a handful of kings the four aces held by Miguel Olympus, San Francisco, Cal., were no good, as alleged at the time by his opponent in the game, Manuel Fernandez.

The battle that followed the presentation of five kings will be settled in court when the judge has noted what Hoyle says on the subject.

Stockholm—Under the provisions of the new marriage law, the wife is compelled to help support the family.

Louis Nelson, Madison, Wis., has a three-eyed cat.

Fashionable milliners of Paris now are making stylish hats for cats. Yep, real felines.

Wyman Cross, Cascades, Que., has a six-legged lamb.

The diminutive mutton can, and does walk on any four of its legs, all of which are perfectly formed, but can't walk on six. Two are always resting.

Many a human has wished for an extra couple of legs for use along toward the end of a far journey afoot.

Sheriff J. W. Potts, of Mason county, Wash., is hunting for a double-nosed Indian, accused in a robbery charge. He is said to be the only redskin with two noses.

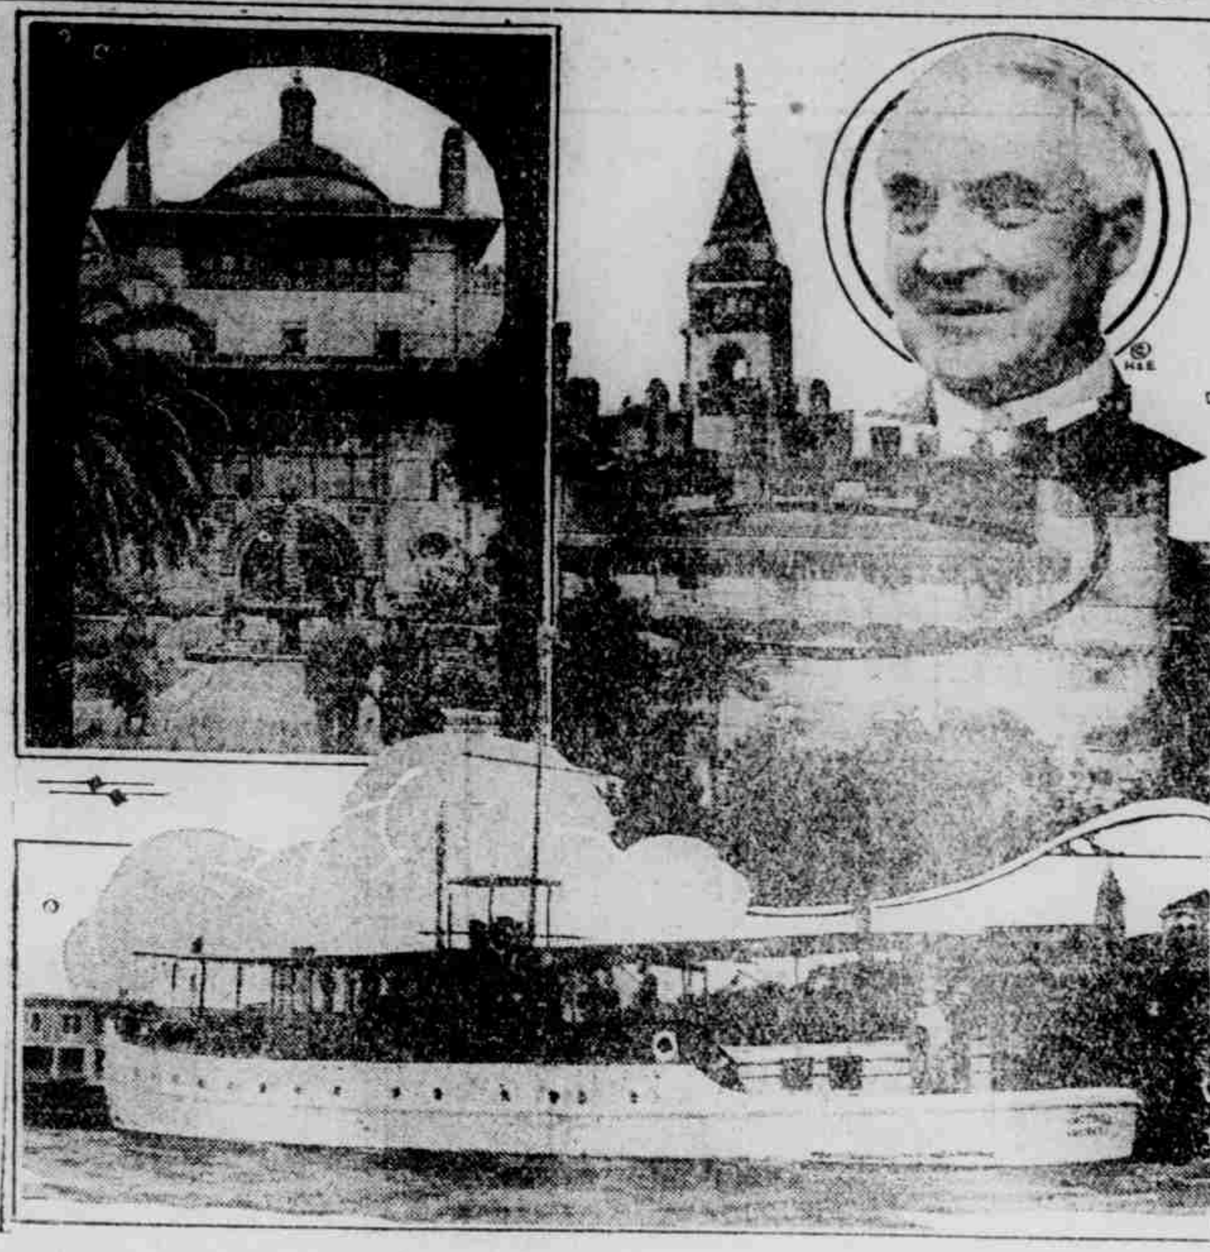

Frank Troechler, Edwardsville, Ill. went out to the barn to feed the stock. He was followed by "Spot" a pet horse. The animal had been trained to open and shut doors.

While Troechler was in the feed room the horse came up, closed the door and latched it.

Troechler got out next afternoon.

Moral: Never teach a horse to lock a door.

GUARDIAN OF LAW WHO NATURALLY IS DEATH ON BOOZERS

(International News Service)

OMAHA, Neb., Jan. 23. — East Omaha, Neb., lies near the Missouri river and may be compared to North Clark street, Chicago, in the [illegible] tion as a center of bootlegging and fast night life for auto parties making the rounds of the cabarets.

But where [illegible] was the lure of bright lights [illegible] windows now is [illegible] "law and order" is the motto adopted by the recent [illegible] of citizens which secured for their part of the city of Omaha designation as a new police district.

Medor Martin, 76 years young and veteran of the Civil War is the justice of the peace, newly appointed. Medor was a policeman for eight years on the Chicago police force and at one time a justice of the peace in Kansas City, Kan.

Court will be held in his cozy two room shack, which he built with his own hands, directly after the first arrest is made. The county [illegible] ers are to be petitioned at once to build a "lock up" onto the "court house" where "the judge" maintains a neat bachelor's habitat.

"The judge" was asked what he would do if some one were arrested before the addition to the "court house" could be built.

"Oh, I'll put him in bed with me, or else lock him in my room and sit up over night outside the door," he answered.

[illegible] 6 feet 2 [illegible] younger man, is the "judge's" [illegible] assistant, and he, too, [illegible] on his job. He already [illegible] and a trusty [illegible]. He is [illegible] to prosper [illegible].

"I [illegible] ketchin' [illegible] that breaks the law in [illegible] I ain't got no handcuffs [illegible] when [illegible] so scairt [illegible] gum, [illegible] 'n a door nail."

In the summer "the judge" plans to build [illegible] his front porch, which will be [illegible] in to protect the "court" from [illegible].

Benefit for the Seabreeze Library to be Given Feb. 10

At the annual meeting of the Seabreeze Library Association, held at the home of Mrs. Sidney Haigh on Peninsula Drive, Seabreeze, early in January, the following officers were elected: President, Canon Bernard Bryan; first vice president, Mrs. T. F. Evernden; second vice president, Mrs. Frank Stengle; treasurer, Mrs. A. W. Powers, secretary, Mrs. H. A. Bernard.

After canvising the matter of fitting up a reading and rest room in the Seabreeze Opera House, offered free of charge it was decided to defer further action until a series of benefits had been worked out.

The first of these, through the generosity of the owner, Mr. Lorillard Reynolds, will be held at the Seabreeze Opera House the evening of Feb. 10, one-half of the proceeds to go to the association. Other entertainments are in contemplation, and the members of the association are confident of realizing good returns from their efforts in so commendable a cause.

A well appointed reading and rest room on Ocean boulevard would prove a most attractive feature and fill a long felt need to hotel guests, tourists, winter residents and year round people, and a liberal response in the sale of tickets is anticipated.

WHY BE DISCOURAGED

Pullman started life with $100 and a peculiar-looking passenger car containing beds. He borrowed the money to have the car built, and then became its first conductor and porter. He made up the beds, smoothed down the sheets, stood at the steps selling tickets.

"What is the secret of success in business?" asked a friend of Cornelius Vanderbilt. "Secret!" there is no secret about it," replied the commodore; "all you have to do is to first find out what your business is, and then attend to it and go ahead."

"Laboremus" (we must work) was the last word of the dying Emperor Severus, as his soldiers gathered around him. "Labor," "achievement," was the Roman motto, and her secret of conquest of the world, says Marden.

The greatest generals returned from their triumphs to the plow. Agriculture was held in great esteem, and it was considered the highest compliment to call a Roman a great agriculturist. Many of their family names were derived from agricultural terms, as Cicero from "cicer," a chick-pea, and Fabius from "faba" a bean, etc.

The Biggest Crater.

Two young Swedish students of geology named Wadell and Ygberg, after an expedition in Iceland, have discovered what is believed to be the largest crater in the world, measuring five miles long and a quarter mile wide, and further claim to have discovered warm springs.

DEEP WATER WAY CONGRESS FOR DETROIT

DETROIT, Jan. 29.—A deep water way congress will be held in Detroit in March.

This was decided upon at a meeting of the Board of Commerce representatives of all organizations in the Great Lakes region and the Northwest who favor the construction by the United States and Dominion governments of the proposed St. Lawrence deep waterway.

The congress will unite working organizations in a systematic campaign for the project. A potential 4,000,000 hydro-electric horsepower in the national and international sections of the St. Lawrence river is pointed out.

The proposed international bridge at Detroit should be called the Bridge of Ryes.

FRANCE DEMANDING GER. CASH; WANTS IT PRONTE, SAYS

By MILTON BRONNER

PARIS, Jan 28.—France wants cash!

And says Germany must pay! in a hurry!

The Germans to date have delivered to the allies a billion and a half dollars in cash, livestock and other properties. But because this merely amounts to the loot carried from allied countries during the war it is not credited on Germany's reparation account.

Germany in addition has delivered two million and a half dollars in gold, ships, goods and securities; also coal and dyestuffs. And last October it handed to the reparations commission bonds totaling 25 billion dollars.

France aims to restore the devastated regions, pay war pensions to wounded soldiers, and allowances to stricken families. For this it needs German cash.

The country is unwilling to accept German paper money. Germany replies that one hasn't gold, but offers goods and workmen.

France is opposed to the idea of German manufactures being dumped on the French market in competition with French goods, but the country is willing to accept further deliveries of coal. It also would welcome timber, brick, structural steel and other materials necessary to restore the devastated regions.

Refuses Workmen

But the offer of German workmen has been flatly refused. France sees it giving Germans employment while thousands of Frenchmen would be seeking jobs. Furthermore, France contends that it would cause disorders to bring German workmen into regions where as soldiers, they ruined the country.

Germany's reply to this has been that she didn't propose to send workers to populated places, but to establish labor camps in regions so devastated that they are still "No Man's Land."

Red Cross Roll Call Goes Over the Top, is Belief

Although final figures were not available Saturday evening, reports of the collections made for the annual Roll Call of the American Red Cross, East Volusia branch, in Daytona Saturday were most optimistic that Daytona had gone over the top in the drive for funds, which was waged for the one day.

Collections were made at a number of booths on Beach street during the day, presided over by young ladies of the city, the response being most satisfactory.

It was announced Saturday evening by the committee that anyone who failed to make their contribution on Saturday, or who wishes to add to the fund, may forward contributions to F. M. Rowe, local chairman, or any member of the local Red Cross committee.

BURGOYNE GAMES CLUB

A delegation of horseshoe pitchers from the Burgoyne Games club played a return match with the Daytona Beach club on the grounds of the latter club yesterday afternoon. Some 25 members of the games club attended the contest, some as combatants and some as rooters. A large crowd witnessed the sport and laughter and applause alternately greeted the players.

Nine sets of three games of 15 points each were played, the best two in three winning. The following is the score by sets:

1—won by Daytona Beach, 2 to 0.
2—won by B. G. C., 2 to 0.
3—won by B. G. C., 2 to 0.
4—won by B. G. C., 2 to 1.
5—won by B. G. C., 2 to 1.
6—won by Daytona Beach, 2 to 0.
7—won by B. G. C. 2 to 1.
8—won by Daytona Beach, 2 to 0.
9—won by B. G. C., 2 to 1.

The following members participated: Burgoyne Games club Messrs. Stowe, Demain, Marshal, Gould, Schmidt, Shaw, Green, Sheats, Elkins, VanMeter, Deller, Thayer, Scoville and Abbett.

For Daytona Beach: Messrs. Brum, Philips, Holmes, French, Fetters, Ayres, Fix, Warren, Copeman, Cooper, Witt, Thompson, Bayless, Kipp, Sutherland, Perry, Amidon and Pease.

The games started at 2:15 and lasted until 5 o'clock.

Members and friends of the Burgoyne Games club should keep in mind the postponed pitching tournament of the club to be held next Tuesday afternoon. Five prizes, all of which have been donated by Mrs. Burgoyne, Orlando Horseshoe Company, will be awarded to those making the best scores. For the highest score an elimination contest will receive the grand prize. A booby prize awaits some one also.

On Thursday next a shuffle board contest will be held and prizes will be awarded.

Wedding Month Ago of a Popular Couple is Just Announced

United in Hymen's folds on the second of January, the wedding of Raymond C. Green and Miss Margaret Davis was first announced yesterday to friends of the couple. They were married by Judge J. Lee McCrory at DeLand the day after New Year's and have kept the secret of their marriage so secure that no one dreamed the event had occurred until it was told by the contracting parties yesterday. Miss Davis has been the houseguest of Mr. and Mrs. Parez Williams. She is the daughter of Colonel and Mrs. M. F. Davis, of Cornwall-on-the-Hudson. Five years ago she spent her Christmas vacation in Daytona and it was at that time that she became acquainted with Mr. Green. She has become one of the most popular of the younger society set during her sojourn in Daytona. Mr. Green is a member of the firm of Green Brothers and one of the enterprising young business men of the city. Their numerous friends join in belated congratulations.

Fred M. Warner, Ex-Governor of Michigan, Discusses Many Vital Subjects With The News

Ex-Governor and Mrs. Fred M. Warner of Pontiac, Mich., after spending a week here with their old time friends, Hon. and Mrs. Arthur Noble Kemmis, who are located in the Mary E. Kemp apartments, at the corner of Atlantic avenue and Kemp street, departed yesterday for a continuation of their winter's journey. They go from here to New Orleans, and after spending a little time there will proceed leisurely to California, where they will spend the rest of the winter months at the principal resorts of that state. While Governor Warner was the chief executive of Michigan, Mr. Kemmis was a member of the Michigan legislature, and the two became fast personal friends, which is the reason for the visit of the governor and his wife here at this time.

Governor Warner was elected in 1904 and re-elected twice thereafter, being the only Michigan executive ever elected three times and serving three full terms. Now the governor of Michigan receives a salary of $5,000 per year, but it has not been many years since the governor of that state received only the ridiculous sum of $1,000, but this change was made some years before Governor Warner's election. Now the auditor general of that state, one of its principal officials, has to do with the salary of $2,500, while his chief deputy is paid $4,000. This is because the office of auditor general is a constitutional office, the salary of which cannot be changed without a vote of the people, while the salaries of the deputies are fixed by the legislature, who have been more generous in making increases.

Governor Warner now represents Michigan on the Republican National Committee, and, of course, led his party during the last national campaign. He says that before the election he predicted his state would go Republican by 400,000, but that no one else in the state guessed the majority at more than 250,000, and every one was astounded when the count showed a majority of 539,000, there being a total Democratic vote cast in the state of only about 250,000, or considerably less than half the Republican majority. Naturally the governor is very proud of this victory, but says he does not claim it as a partisan one. He estimates that 90 per cent of the women's vote in that state and about a fourth of the old time Democratic vote was cast for Harding. In his opinion, the Democratic Harding votes represented anti-Wilson sentiment, rather than anti-Democratic.

When asked what he thought would be the outcome of the prosecution of Senator Newberry he said:

"This is entirely a legal question, and what I might say would be entirely guess work. I might say, however, that United States Judge Sessions, who tried him, is a Republican and that eight of the jurors who found him guilty are Republicans. This would seem to indicate that he had a fair trial and that there must have been evidence to sustain the verdict. I do not think, however, that Henry Ford and his friends had any real basis for a re-count of the vote. So far the vote shows that there will not be more than 3,000 difference in the result. There was a great deal of money spent on both sides in this contest, but it is my information that the bulk of the money spent for Mr. Ford was not his money and not spent by him, but was furnished and spent in his behalf by his friends. Senator Newberry has a great deal of business ability, but until this matter is settled Michigan will have but one representative in the United States Senate, as Mr. Newberry will not take his seat until he is either given a new trial or his case reversed by the Supreme Court."

With regard to the unemployment of labor throughout the country just now, Governor Warner said:

"In this regard Michigan is worse off than any other state in the union so far as I know. It is my understanding that 82 per cent of the working force of Michigan is out of work today, while in other states similarly affected only 30 or 40 per cent are out of employment. It seems to me that this is a time when all business men should play safe. Personally I doubt if things get back to anywhere near normal before next fall. I know some are more optimistic than I, but that is the way I view the situation. It is true that some of the factories are staring up now, but it is not much of a start up when they open with 500 employes out of 5,000 formerly used. I notice that in most cases they are not employing more than 25 per cent of their former forces."

Governor Warner is confident that the Harding administration will tend to restore confidence throughout the business world because he is a man among men and will use his own good common sense in co-operation with the good judgment of the other level headed men of ability in the country. He is much interested in the good roads movement in his state and says $50,000,000 have been issued to provide funds for this purpose and that the money is being judiciously expended. He thinks cement roads are the best for his country. In speaking of the business policy of Henry Ford toward his men, Governor Warner said:

"Mr. Ford certainly has maintained a very generous policy toward his employes. His general welfare system had a wonderful effect in inspiring and encouraging industry and frugality, but I understand he has discontinued this. It was very expensive for him. He maintained a force of inspectors to visit the homes and talk with the families of his men to find out exactly how they were using their money and then when the time came to distribute bonuses he would favor those making the best use of their earnings. However, he always pays good wages and treats his men fairly. He recently distributed bonuses totalling $7,000,000."

Mrs. Warner is a near relative of Governor W. H. Sproul of Pennsylvania and the two governors are close friends, their families frequently exchanging visits. Governor Warner is a fine appearing man, considerably above the average height and in manner is exceedingly courteous and democratic. He is one of the most extensive cheese manufacturers in the United States.

Song Recital By Royal Dadmum Greatly Enjoyed

Friday evening a well filled house greeted Royal Dadmun in his song recital given at the Auditorium as a part of the assembly course. The program rendered was well selected and was a pleasing combination of classical and popular songs in four groups.

In the first group "I Attempt from Love's Sikness to Fly," by Purcell, and "Citra I Ceppi (Berenice, 1737)," were perhaps the most heartily received and enjoyed by the audience.

In the second group the "Hunger Song," Cesar Cui, was filled with tragedy and sorrow, which was at once counteracted by the fun and laughter in the "Songs of the Flea," Moussorgsky. Throughout the program was well balanced and the audience delighted from first to last. The singer put so much of feeling and enthusiasm in his selections that the audience at once became interested and the last rendition was given such a heart ovation that a response was graciously rendered.

Mr. Dadmun was accompanied by Miss Marion Simms at the piano and she played with sympathy that very much aided in the splendid work of the singer.

PENINSULA LOCALS

Miss Evaline Nelson of New York City has arrived and is registered at a local hotel.

Mrs. D. T. Banner of Bainbridge, N. Y., has engaged an apartment at 135 Atlantic avenue.

Mrs. W. W. Jaxlin of Bainbridge, N. Y., has arrived and has an apartment at 135 Atlantic avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Jaycox of Cold Springs, N. Y., are here and are delightfully located at 123 Halifax avenue.

Henry J. Baker of Crown Point, Ind., arrived today and has located for the winter in the Budgin apartment on Main street.

R. G. Borchert, a leading business man of Crown Point, Ind., arrived today for the season and is pleasantly located at 216 Grandview avenue.

Mrs. Nettie B. Haviland of Glens Falls, N. Y., is comfortably located for the winter in her bungalow at 318 South Halifax avenue.

Mrs. Laura S. Ellsworth and Miss Jean Fellows of Schenectady, N. Y., have come to spend the winter and are located at 136 Wild Olive avenue.

An invitation has been received by the Peninsula club members from the Geneva hotel to hold a card party there for the benefit of the new club house fund.

Director James Heaton of the Auditorium announces that hereafter reserved season tickets for the 18 remaining members on the regular assembly course can be obtained at his office for $5 each. Also that unreserved tickets for the balance of the course can be secured for $3.50. This looks like a real opportunity for those who enjoy high class entertainments.

Mrs. Hubert C. Minard and son and Mrs. W. C. Wilbur of Buffalo are here to spend several weeks. Mrs. Wilbur's husband, who is dead, was a brother of Rev. C. C. Wilbur of Halifax avenue. Both brothers were formerly eminent ministers in New York for many years. Mrs. Minard is a daughter of Mrs. Wilbur.

At the meeting of the New York tourists at the clubrooms in the lobby of the Dixie hotel Friday afternoon, Mrs. M. S. Kelly of Elmira, N. Y., was chosen president. It was an enthusiastic gathering of about 80 people, and it was decided to put on a real New York program at the regular Tourist club meeting at the Auditorium on Monday, February 7.

Mrs. Lillian G. Ditto, daughter of Mrs. Anna M. Griffith's, tourist club secretary, has been appointed the Triple Cities representative of the Tourist News, a weekly publication of St. Petersburg, devoted to the entertainment and welfare of northern people, who plan to spend their winters in Florida. Mrs. Ditto has been connected with the editorial department of the Lexington (Ky.) Herald and the Asheville (N. C.) Times and no doubt will be able to send her paper much timely information from this section. She certainly has a large and attractive field. The Tourist News is printed in magazine form and illustrated.

E. H. Kennedy, Johnstown, N. Y.

From Michigan the following very pleasant people arrived today and are looking for apartments: Mr. and Mrs. Leigh Van Ahtwerp and Master Lloyd Van Antwerp of Detroit and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Parker of Trenton.

Editor Fred Wheeler of the Crown Point (Ind.) Star arrived at this Beach this morning and has secured a very desirable apartment in the "Comfort Lodge" on the ocean front. He is located about 40 miles from Chicago in Lake county, Indiana, a very rich agricultural district. He says the newspaper business has been at its best during the past three years and that the prospects for the future look good to him.

It is quite probable that Daytona Beach will have a second bank.

In fact, practically all of the stock for a new trust company to be capitalized at fifty thousand dollars has been subscribed for. The News representative was assured today that $49,000 of the stock has been actually taken and that the remaining $1,000 could be placed any minute.

It is the understanding that Mayor R. E. Niven has had much to do with the organizing work and that he will be the president of the new institution. He was for many years president of the bank at Thorntown, Ind., a thriving rural town located only a short distance from Indianapolis and he is said to have banking interests in the latter city yet. Other gentlemen said to be prominently connected with the new enterprise are U. S. Shelly, W. H. Courtney, G. G. Bailey, Ramey Brothers and other well known men of affairs in the Triple Cities.

While the plans are not entirely matured it is now believed the new bank will not open for business before next September or October. They want to be ready by the opening of the next tourist season.

In speaking to a News representative about the proposed institution one who has subscribed for a small block of the stock said: "So far as I am concerned, I simply consented to give the proposition a boost, because I believe it will help the peninsula cities. I have no fault to find with our present bank, and do my business there, but I believe in competition in every line. If I had a store on a country four corners I would prefer to have a competitor across the way, as no one likes to be obliged to trade in one place. They like to have a choice. I feel certain that a new bank here will result in the present bank doing a bigger business than ever before and the new bank doing well also. Of course, I realize that there is always some element of uncertainty in starting any new enterprise; that it generally is several years before a bank is likely to be able to declare anything like healthy dividends, if any at all. Also that all stockholders are liable for double the amount of their stock in case of trouble; also that business conditions are more or less unsettled, but in spite of all these matters to be considered I am taking a little interest with my eyes wide open, fully confident that there is more room for two banks here than for one."

Mayor Niven has been spending the week end in Jacksonville, and it is said he went on business connected with the new corporation.

Among the names being discussed for the new business is, "Peninsula Trust Company," but this, of course, is subject to a change. There was some discussion as to whether it should be a National bank, but as it is not lawful for a National bank to loan money on real estate security it was decided to make it a trust company instead, as there is much of that sort of business transacted on.

ARE WE WASTING WHAT WE'RE SPENDING, DEFENSE?

Throughout the civilized world the taxpayers are troubled as they read of the vast sums the debt-burdened nations are spending on armies and navies.

Is it any wonder? H. N. Rickey, in his Washington dispatch today, shows that the nations will spend five billion dollars at the very lowest estimate this fiscal year, preparing for another war.

And that isn't the end of the question by a long shot!

Can it be that we are spending millions on a type of defense that wouldn't defend us in another war- Is the battleship obsolete?

The London Daily Mirror editorially reviews the lessons of the war and demands: "What is the use of a battleship?" The Mirror, incidentally, is one of the greatest papers in England. It is published by Lord Rothermere, brother of Lord Northcliffe.

"1—We see that our greatest danger during the war came from submarines in 1917 and 1918.

"2—That, had the Germans been fully provided with submarines and ruthlessly used them in 1914, instead of two or three years later, we should have lost the war.

"3—That our fleet remained in great peril, lurking behind the shelter of our northwestern coast, because it could not come out, or stay out, on account of mines, submarines and the aircraft that will be much more deadly in the next war.

"4—That when it did come out for a big action it could not stay out long enough for a decisive victory, on account of submarines.

"5—That, in sum, its surface activities were all restricted in home home waters by this peril under the sea and in the air, and that it was unable to prevent the growth upon the Belgian coast of hornets' nests of these enemies which thickened about it as the war went on. Nor was it able to secure a definite detailed superiority over the enemy.

"The old historical Armada perished because it was obsolete and cumbersome.

"Shall we build a new one with no money to do it with—in order that we may make an old mistake over again!"

So says the London Daily Mirror. Many other British papers take the same attitude.

Can it be that we, in the United States are pouring out our gold for a defense that would not defend us in time of peril—for a cumbrous surface fleet that airplanes and submarines would easily drive to cover?

Mr. and Mrs. Olof Oleson of Boston, Mass., are among recent arrivals. They have an apartment in the residence of Mrs. C. L. Horn at 212 Peninsula drive. Later they will be joined by their son, who has been in Mexico the past year in the employ of the American Smelting company as a chemist. The son writes that conditions are much more settled under the new Mexican administration and that the rebels are now practically inactive, making it more safe and satisfactory to be interested in business there.

NINE MILITIAMEN FACE TRIAL FOR LYNCHING MONDAY

(Newspaper Enterprise Association.)

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Jan. 29.—Nine young members of the National Guard will go on trial for their lives in the little town of Hamilton, Ala., Jan. 31, charged with an act "in violation of every duty owed by a soldier to his country"—the lynching of William Baird, striking union coal miner.

Interest in this trial is more tense than in any which has been before the courts of Alabama. It follows these events.

Dec. 22.—James Morris, private, Co. M, Alabama National Guard, shot to death by William Baird.

Dec. 28—Baird surrendered, on advice of relatives, after evading his pursuers.

Jan. 13—Baird taken from prison at Jasper, Ala., by masked men and his body riddled with bullets two miles from the prison.

Jan. 19—Nine guardsmen indicted.

Jan. 24—Accused men arraigned.

These events have increased the tension in the coal miners' strike in Alabama to the snapping point, and officials are speeding justice to have the Baird affair done with before something worse occurs.

The accused men are:

Sergeant Glenn L. Stephens, 22, parents dead.

Corporal Joseph Key, 19, son of a merchant.

Corporal James Franklin, 19, son of a farmer.

Corporal Manly R. Sexton, 18, son of an engineer.

Corporal E. W. Speed, 18, son of a farmer.

Private William Hamby, 18, son of a mill operator.

Private Roy Patton, 22.

Bugler C. E. Richardson, 18.

The homes of all are in Tuscaloosa, Ala., where Co. M was recruited. Two are veterans of the World War, Sergeant Stephens and Sergeant Lancaster.

How It Happened.

Co. M was sent to the Jasper coal strike district following the assassination of Leon M. Adler, a coal operator.

Shortly after the company was assigned to duty there, Private James Morris killed John Northcutt, a striking miner, whom he had arrested. He said his gun accidentally went off and sent a fellow soldier for help.

While the soldier was seeking assistance, Morris was slain by Baird, who subsequently confessed, declaring he shot Morris in self-defense. Baird fled into the hills of North Alabama, but later surrendered and on the night of Jan. 12 made a full statement of the case.

Lynching Follows.

Early on Jan. 13 masked men appeared at the Jasper prison, overpowered the jailer, carried Baird off in an automobile and two miles away fired 25 bullets into his body.

The automobile was tracked from the prison to the garage of Leslie West.

West confessed, naming the nine indicted National Guardsmen as the men who had taken Baird from the jail. Clyde Springer, a member of Co. M, also gave information regarding the operations of his fellow soldiers. Neither he nor West has been indicted.

Real Estate Best Investment
IN DAYTONA ESPECIALLY

In October I happened to talk to a Real Estate man from Louisville, Ky., and mentioned to him that Daytona is the most logical and best place for real estate investments, stating to him that Daytona is still "on the ground floor." He replied: "You are wrong, my boy; Daytona has not emerged from the basement as yet, but just as soon as she does come out onto the 'ground floor,' there is nothing to stop the growth of Daytona. Just watch her smoke. I have never seen anything with brighter prospects than Daytona!"

I am sure that gentleman was right. Come in and let me explain it to you. See

PRINCESS ISSENA

While the Princess Issena has been the temporary abiding place of many people of prominence and note, perhaps none of them ever exceeded in national fame "Billy" Sunday, who with Mrs. Sunday will make that place their home during their sojourn of three weeks in the Triple Cities.

To take up his family abode in any hotel is a departure from the regular Sunday program. It has been his custom to demand and receive the use of some palatial private home in the cities where he has builded his tabernacles and held his meetings as this manner of living is more in accord with his taste than that of hotel life.

Perhaps more people have traveled hundreds of miles to listen to "Billy" Sunday than to hear any other orator or preacher now before the public and his meetings at the Auditorium will be sure to attract big crowds from every part of this state and from many neighboring states.

Holding his meetings in an Auditorium belonging to the people of the community rather than in a tabernacle built for that purpose is also a departure from the regular Sunday plan. However, there is no question but that he and all those who are attracted to the meetings will be much more comfortable there than they could possibly be in a temporary building, hastily and cheaply erected for that purpose.

Musical Director Rhodehever is second only to the Rev. Billy in popularity and shares with him almost equally as a drawing card. There will be the usual massive choir of local singers and to take part in this great choir is a rare opportunity for any who have aspirations along vocal musical lines because of the training that they will receive.

The largest crowds of the winter will be here during the Sunday meetings and many people are looking eagerly forward to the unusual event.

It is understood that Mr. Sunday's son George will be here to assist in the meetings.

PRINCE GEORGE

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gries and Herbert Brookfield and his daughter, Miss Phyllis Brookfield, made a pleasant trip to St. Augustine Thursday returning in the evening of the same day. They enjoyed visiting in the ancient city where they found many things of great interest to them. They had lunch at the Ponce de Leon and reported a very lovely trip.

Mrs. Mary Youlin and Mrs. W. W. Hilyard were guests of James Kelsey for a fishing expedition Thursday. They went to the Haulover, which is forty miles south of the city, starting at 6 o'clock in the morning. They took a fine lunch along with them and returned in the evening with a fine catch, notwithstanding that it was one of the coldest days of the winter.

William Adams who has been spending some time in St. Augustine is now at the Prince George where he is enjoying his first visit to the Triple Cities.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Ripp and family who are making a motor trip of the state were at the Prince George during the week. Their home is in Kalkaski, Mich.

Frank C. Bray of Vineland, N. J. has joined his wife at the Prince George, where she has for some time been enjoying the beauties of the Florida climate.

Mrs. Carolyn M. Brintingham of New York city is a new arrival at the Prince George.

Goddard, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Weber, M. E. Weber, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Miller, Raymond Miller, Flora Miller, Blanche E. Miller and Charles H. Miller. Most of these are located in the Miller apartments on Grandview avenue.

Secretary R. L. Selden of the Chamber of Commerce states that it will not now be long until he will be able to begin the distribution of the attractive booklets showing the attractive features of Daytona Beach and Seabreeze, which he ordered several weeks ago. He says the printers report that as soon as certain engraving plates arrive they will be able to finish the job, and these they expect daily.

Among the arrivals today from Washington, D. C., are Dr. and Mrs. A. G. Lewis. They are temporarily located at the Dixie hotel. Dr. Lewis, with his brother, are the editors and publishers of the Army and Navy Magaine, published at the nation's capitol. He is the author, also, of many popular books and is one of the well known writers of the country. He is not in the best of health and is in search of an agreeable climate. If it agrees with him here they will probably spend the rest of the winter at the Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. James Forgie of Newcastle-on-the-Tyne, England, who for most of the winter have been delightful guests at the Seaside Inn, but who left about two weeks ago for an extended automobile trip intending to visit Palm Beach, Miami and Havana. They returned today and were warmly welcomed back by the management and other regular guests about the hotel as well as the many friends they made throughout the city while here. They are regular bathers in the ocean and it is to be hoped they will spend the remainder of the season here.

Many of the foremost men in America after trying other places have become permanent residents of Daytona and vicinity, thus proving by their works that considered from all angles the Daytona section appeals to them as does no other place. For instance, the richest man in the world after trying Southern California for several years and then Georgia, and then spending two or three winters here, has made this his permanent winter home, and has built a beautiful residence on the Halifax.

Many others, leaders in American life, have done the same thing. Probably no other community in America can show such a list of prominent winter home owning residents.

The Invitation

WE, the undersigned property owners and tax payers in the TRIPLE CITIES, hereby extend to you a most hearty invitation to call this "home" if you are not already permanently located in this community. Here you will find a perfect blending of agreeable, healthful climate, and charming, inspiring scenery, with wholesome, delightful people.

SEVERAL NOTABLE FIGHT FANS WILL BE AT NEXT BOUT

The boxing and wrestling matches being given each Monday evening at the Armory, under the auspices of the First Separate Company, National Guard of Florida, are creating great interest, not only in the Triple Cities but in the outlying communities, from which many of the fans come each week for the sport.

Tomorrow evening's double bill will be attended by several fans who have national and international reputations in the sporting and literary world.

Donn Byrne, patron of sport, former international athlete, authority on boxing and wrestling and member of the International Sporting club of New York, has been extended an invitation by the National Guard to attend the Monday evening matches, and has signified his intention of being present to see the bouts. There is, perhaps, no greater authority in America on boxing and wrestling than Byrne, and his presence at the ringside Monday evening should stimulate the contestants to do their best.

JACK REYNOLDS

In company with Byrne will be William B. Hanna of the New York Herald, famous sport writer, who is spending the winter at the Hotel Ormond, where he is publicity manager for the big hotel. Hanna has reported most of the big fights in America for many years for his paper and will be present Monday evening.

A third member of the party will be Octavus Roy Cohen, noted short story writer, who enjoys a boxing and wrestling match as well as the next one. He is spending the present season at the Bretton Inn, as is Donn Byrne.

The match Monday evening should prove one of the best of the season, as two excellent main bouts have been arranged, one a boxing and one a wrestling match.

In the boxing bout Jack Reynolds, one of the classiest scrappers ever seen in a local ring, will take on "Battling" McCarthy, a New York "pug," who comes here with an excellent reputation back of him. Reynolds has been training here steadily all week preparing for his coming bout, and promises to give a good account of himself tomorrow night.

Jack Jordan, who needs no introduction to local wrestling fans, will take on Alex Thomas in the main wrestling match. Thomas won the approval of fight fans last season in several matches and will, no doubt, be a worthy opponent for Jordan, who has yet to lose a match at the Armory this season.

A battle royal will help to fill out a good program, with possibility a preliminary thrown in for good measure.

The largest crowd of the season is expected by the National Guard boys tomorrow night, with two main bouts scheduled for the evening entertainment.

Volusia Exhibit At Orlando Fair Will Be Finest

The exhibit committee, chairman and County Agent Dunaway have completed a canvass of southern Volusia county, and report that every hamlet in this section will be well represented by exhibits in the Volusia county section of the big Sub-Tropical Mid-Winter Fair.

The ladies of this section, as well as the men, are much interested, and included among the craft work will be exhibits of curios, grass baskets, oil, water color and china painting and designing, cameo and jewelry, various pieces of needlework, and a large exhibit of preserves and canned goods.

The lesser halves of the good ladies of this section have pledged exhibits of pecans, various citrus and decidious fruits, a superb collective exhibit of garden truck, many varieties of sorghums, field peas, corn, cane, syrups, hardwood, collections, rustic furniture, sweet and Irish potatoes, peanuts, bananas, fruit clusters, mineral waters, etc.

When the above list is considered in conjunction with the fact that the district from which these exhibits are forthcoming comprises but a small section of volusia county, something of the magnitude of this year's exhibit can be estimated and it is better understood why 2,000 square feet of display space will be required this year instead of 1,000 feet as of yore.

The exhibit committee in planning an attractive setting for this exhibit have had erected as an entrance two large columns of Bond sandstone brick, a Volusia county product contributed by R. M. Bond. Resting on these columns is a large gothic arch of coquina stucco bearing the name "Volusia." Greeting the eye of the visitor upon entering will be a diamond-shaped bed of green grass and flowers with attractive wall and reposing on a pedestal of citrus fruits in the center of this bed will be a female figure draped in white with a basket of fruits, vegetables and flowers, symbolic of the "Spirit of Volusia." On the east side of the building will be agricultural and industrial exhibits and in the rear the Board of Trade and sportmen's organizations will have exhibits. The west side will be devoted to fruits, vegetables and art work of many kinds.

The splendid cooperation extended the exhibit committee by the men and women of "Versatile Volusia", will make a winning by any other county almost an impossibility for rarely is such cooperation seen.
